Candidates must have an MFA at the time of appointment, and previous experience teaching painting, drawing and 2D foundations at the university level. The ideal candidate will demonstrate an understanding of historical and contemporary art issues, methods, and technologies that can be observed in their personal work and that of their students. Applicants with experience using Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop are also preferred.

The applicant must submit: a cover letter describing her/his qualifications and interest in this position, a 1-2 page teaching philosophy, an artist's statement, a curriculum vitae, 20 labeled examples of personal work and 20 labeled examples of student work (multiple views or detail images acceptable), and a list of three recommenders. Applications must be submitted through Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/142327> . For full consideration, applications must be received by April 14th, 2024. This appointment is contingent upon availability of funding and subject to the approval of the University Equal Opportunity Office. Finalists will be interviewed via Skype.
