wishing to pursue a profession in music or those pursuing related programs of study on campus. The School also offers elective opportunities for music study to the overall student body.

The School of Music invites qualified scholars and professionals to submit applications, which will be reviewed by the faculty and placed in a pool to be considered for part-time, full-time, regular, or temporary teaching positions, as needed. Applications will be accepted throughout the year and appointments made when extra instructors are required to fill vacancies or in emergency situations. Successful applicants must have appropriate authorization to work in the U.S. before employment begins.

Job Description

100% Part- to full-time teaching positions, as needed. Applications will be accepted throughout the year and appointments made when extra instructors are required to fill vacancies or in emergency situations.

Lecturers are non-tenure-track members of the faculty with limited term appointments, whose primary role is instructional with no obligations to perform research or service.

Required Qualifications

Masters degree; OR bachelors degree plus 5 years of professional music experience; OR 10 or more years of professional music experience.

Preferred Qualifications

Master's Degree in music or equivalent professional experience in the discipline.
