Position description

The Department of Architecture at UC Berkeley invites applications for a pool of qualified lecturers to teach non-studio courses in the following areas: Architectural History and Theory, Building Science, Structures, and Construction, should an opening arise. Screening of applicants is ongoing and will continue as needed. The number of positions varies from semester to semester (fall, spring, and summer), depending upon the needs of the Architecture department.

General Duties: In addition to teaching responsibilities, general duties include holding office hours, assigning grades, advising students, preparing course materials (e.g., syllabus), and using Cal's electronic resources for course management.

Qualifications

Basic qualifications (required at time of application)

B. Arch. degree (or equivalent international degree) at time of application.

Additional qualifications (required at time of start)

M.Arch from an Accredited Architecture program, or Masters in related discipline (or equivalent international degree) at time of hire.
