Job Description

The University of Kentucky seeks a dynamic and passionate faculty member to join the Department of Arts Administration in the College of Fine Arts beginning in Spring 2022 or Fall 2022. The rank of the incoming faculty member is open and will be determined based on the candidate's background and experience. The faculty member will teach courses within the core curriculum of the Department of Arts Administration, pursue a research agenda in the Arts Administration field, and hold service responsibilities.

The faculty member will teach face-to-face undergraduate and online graduate courses as assigned by the Chair; supervise and/or serve on graduate exams and project committees; advise graduate students each semester as assigned. The faculty member is required to continually practice, expand, test and/or disseminate their professional expertise through research related to arts administration. Additionally, the faculty member will serve on committees for the Department, College, and University, as requested; professional service to the field desirable; and assume other duties as assigned.
