The College of Architecture, Art and Design (CAAD) at American University of Sharjah (AUS) invites applications for two regular or visiting faculty positions—at the assistant professor level—in the Department of Art and Design. The position provides an opportunity to contribute to a dynamic and diverse learning environment with students from approximately 90 countries. CAAD has established a reputation as a leader in design education in the region and graduates have gone on to study at top graduate programs across the globe and have established themselves as experts in creative industries within the region.

All positions come with a competitive salary and an attractive benefits package inclusive of free housing and generous retirement contributions along with funding for annual return airfare, school tuition for dependents and health insurance. Successful candidates are expected to assume duties in either January or August 2022.

The successful candidate will primarily teach courses in the Bachelor of Science in Multimedia Design program and/or the Foundation Year. A terminal degree (MFA) in multimedia design, digital media or a related area is required along with relevant academic and professional experience. Candidates should have expertise in one or more of the following areas: video production and post-production, sound design, photography, interaction design, 2D and/or 3D animation, UX/UI, physical computing, app design and other digital media. They should also have the ability to teach foundations design studio and drawing courses.

In addition to teaching, faculty are required to mentor students, engage in scholarly activities (which can include creative work, research or both) and participate in service activities for the college, university and community. Creative work and research are important for the department and the university. Successful candidates will not only have access to excellent research opportunities but also generous financial support from the university to develop their scholarship. Applicants should have an excellent record of teaching and scholarship from a reputable university or the potential for developing such a record.

Interested applicants should submit: 1) a letter of application that describes the fit with this position description and provides the names and contact information of three referees; 2) a curriculum vitae; and 3) a digital portfolio of scholarly/professional/teaching activities (as a single PDF file, not exceeding 50 pages, that can be downloaded without a password from Google Drive, Dropbox or other file sharing facility).
