| Job Description | |

The Theatre Arts Program, housed within the newly formed School of Literary and Performing Arts at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, seeks a nine-month Assistant Professor of Scenic Design. The successful candidate will join an accomplished and collegial team of theatre faculty and staff dedicated to a student-centered model of production. As the program expands production capacity and in-person performances, we seek a candidate committed to collaboration and artistic innovation. In this position, the successful candidate will oversee, generate and implement scenic designs for mainstage productions. In addition, candidates will have a secondary focus in one of the following areas: scenic painting, properties design, projection design or lighting design. The successful candidate will also support production procedures, budgetary considerations, and the maintenance and development of the spatial and material inventory. Theatre Arts is committed to an ethos of equity, diversity, and inclusion in its classes and productions; ideal candidates will demonstrate cultural
