Furnishings and Interiors. The nine-month non tenure-track appointment is expected to be 62.5 % teaching (5 courses) in the Lamar Dodd School of Art and 37.5% teaching (3 courses) in the Department of Textiles, Merchandising and Interiors.

QUALIFICATIONS:

All applicants should hold a terminal degree in interior design, architecture, or related field with NCIDQ certification at time of appointment. Candidates with a non-terminal master's degree must document exceptional accomplishments in their respective field and must be approved for a terminal degree exception before hire. Candidates should demonstrate potential to teach a spectrum of interior design courses. The successful candidate will have expertise in design practice and will be prepared to instruct undergraduates and graduate students within a diversely constituted School of Art and the College of Family and Consumer Sciences. The Lamar Dodd School of Art includes a CIDA and NASAD-accredited program in Interior Design. This Lecturer will be a vital member of the collaborative community of both units, working with colleagues to develop curricula and expand programs, and engaging in student mentorship.
