In addition, the Dean is responsible for forging links with the broader media community and other external partners to further the school's mission, especially as it applies to nurturing research, creative work, and student learning within a context of relevance and leading-edge practice.

The successful candidate should have:

- A terminal degree in communications/ media or related discipline.
- Mastery of both English and Arabic.
- Proven track record and evidence of academic excellence.
- Proven track record in management/administration.
- Experience of significant variety and scope in managing media/communication organizations and/or business consulting and/or executive training, or other significant "real world" experience.
- Significant international and multicultural exposure.
- Thorough understanding of the social, cultural and educational environment, and of business conditions and practices in the UAE, the GCC, and/or the wider Middle East.

The compensation package for this position is competitive and is based on the expatriate model. Besides tax-exempt basic salary, it includes housing, annual two-way airfare, health / life insurance, professional memberships, conference attendance expenses, assistance with children's tuition, and other components.

The American University in Dubai is a private, non-sectarian institution of higher learning founded in 1995. It serves UAE nationals and international students who seek a world-class career-oriented education. AUD, as an international institution of higher education, encourages global understanding by providing an atmosphere of cultural diversity and opportunities for an international education.

Applications will be accepted and evaluated until this position is filled.

Interested candidates are invited to submit their applications through AUD's Recruitment Portal, where they can create their profiles and provide the necessary documents.
