Job Description

Assistant Professor of Art, tenure track, Painting/Drawing (Position # 6274) The Division of Art in the Meadows School of the Arts at Southern Methodist University invites nominations and applications in Painting/Drawing for an opportunity to be involved in the shaping of a dynamic interdisciplinary curriculum in Art. The candidate selected will be expected to be a significant partner in connecting the Division to an increasingly diverse and globally connected community at the university and in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. The successful candidate will be an artist with an extensive record of creative practice with at least one year of full-time teaching.

As a faculty committed to interdisciplinary dialogue, we seek an artist and educator working within Painting/Drawing and its position within contemporary art. Creative responsibilities include active artistic presence on a national level through exhibition or other kinds of publication. Teaching responsibilities include introductory and advanced undergraduate courses and graduate courses.

Other responsibilities include university service, especially but not limited to supervision of the Painting/Drawing areas shared with faculty in Painting/Drawing and with the support of the Art Technical Manager.

Faculty in the two areas, Painting and Drawing, work closely together from observation and imagination in an open dialogue with the other areas in the Division of Art. Artists of all ethnic backgrounds and philosophical persuasions and women, minorities, veterans, and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Minimum qualifications

- An MFA or equivalent in Art
- An extensive creative portfolio in Painting/Drawing with an active exhibition record
- Extensive knowledge of traditional and recent Painting/Drawing with the ability to teach across the broadest spectrum of materials and concepts
- One year full-time teaching at the university level
- An interest in curriculum development
- Commitment to fostering an inclusive and diverse learning environment for students of all backgrounds.

Preferred qualifications:

- Demonstration of a body of work and teaching that integrates Painting/Drawing with the world of art today
- An engagement with an area of Painting or Drawing in depth, as well the breadth of Painting and Drawing
- Two years full-time teaching at university level

Application Instructions

Applications must include:

- Letter of application highlighting the candidate's accomplishments and interest in the position
- Artist statement (one page or less) describing the artist's work in relation to historical and contemporary art practices
- Teaching statement (one page or less) describing the candidate's philosophy of teaching

The Division of Art provides a challenging environment for the study of studio art within a multi-faceted arts school at a major liberal arts university. We offer a B.A., B.F.A., and M.F.A. in studio art. Each of our undergraduate degrees is based in an innovative program of Foundation studies and broad experiences in ways of seeing, ways of making, and ways of thinking. We place emphasis on the development of our students' knowledge in ceramics, drawing, installation, new media, painting, performance, photography, printmaking, sculpture, sound, and/or time-based media. Students are encouraged to work across media and in ways that integrate with other studies to develop their awareness of the context of art today and its future possibilities. Traditionally each degree culminates in focused exhibition, based in intensive work and critical discussion that is individual and true to students' ideas and ambitions. In addition to faculty actively engaged in exhibition and research at the highest levels, SMU's Division of Art hosts an ongoing series of lectures, open studios, panels and studio visits by artists, critics and curators.
