Job Description

Assistant Professor of Graphic Design
University of Tennessee, Martin

The University of Tennessee at Martin Department of Visual and Theatre Arts invites applications for a full-time Assistant Professor of Graphic Design. To support the current needs, future changes, and growth of the department, we are looking for an experienced, versatile, and innovative teacher and designer with a breadth of experience and knowledge in a broad range of graphic design techniques. Potential courses taught may include Graphic Design I and II, Page Layout, Advertising, Illustration, Photography, UX/UI, Video, and Animation.

The candidate should have experience coaching students in professional behavior and readiness, through internships, and academic advising to keep students on track towards graduation. The candidate is expected to maintain an active record of scholarly and creative activity and service to the university. A terminal degree (MFA, MDes, PhD in Design) in Graphic Design, Visual Communication Design, Visual Studies, or related field by August 1, 2025 is required.

Applicants need to complete the online employment application https://www.utm.edu/offices-and-services/human-resources/employment-opportunities.php and attach a letter of application stating qualifications for the position as described, statement of teaching philosophy, a portfolio of personal professional works (10 samples), a portfolio of student work (10 samples), and a complete resume of educational and professional experience (must include at least three references), unofficial transcripts. For additional information please contact: Prof. Sarah Haig, Chair, Department of Visual and Theatre Arts, shaig1@utm.edu. Formal review of applications will begin Monday, Jan. 13, 2025and continue until the position is filled.
