The course is scheduled to meet Thursdays from 2:30 PM - 7:30PM. The first class meeting will be held January 15th, 2024.

For additional compensation, the instructor can also serve on end-of-semester review boards, providing feedback to students working across all media.

Qualifications

MFA is required. Additional qualifications include prior teaching experience at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Applicant must demonstrate excellence in scholarship, research, lecturing, and have an active exhibition record. The successful applicant should be able to lead in-class discussions, demonstrate tools/technique, cite artistic examples when appropriate, review assigned readings, engage with students, and overall create an inclusive class environment.

Application Instructions

All applications are submitted via Interfolio: apply.interfolio.com/159941. Applicants should submit a cover letter that highlights relevant experience, a CV, 8-10 images of artwork, one sample syllabus for a related course, and the names and email addresses of two references who may be contacted at a future date.

Evaluation of candidates will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Questions about the position can be sent to n. sean glover, Area Representative for the Fibers Sculpture Area, at sean.glover@tufts.edu. Haley Sherif, Haley.Sherif@tufts.edu, should be included in the communication. All offers of employment are contingent upon the completion of a background check.
