HAR 110 Foundations 2D: Color and Composition

Under this appointment, your responsibilities will include preparing and maintaining course syllabus, teaching assigned classes, attending all class sessions, grading and providing appropriate feedback to students, scheduling office hours, completing all assessments requirements, and attending at least one orientation meeting. You will also be required to provide your students and the HASS office with a comprehensive course syllabus before the start of the semester. The syllabus should include all course requirements, grading policy, assignments, expected exams and required reading. You will provide us with your textbook order in-time for materials to arrive well in advance of the first week of classes. Finally, you will be required to adhere to the policies as stated in the HASS faculty handbook.

Qualifications: Advanced degree in Visual Arts. Experience teaching at the University level required.

On-line applications required at <https://stevens.wd5.myworkdayjobs.com/External>. Positions will remain open until filled.

Applicants should be sure to include a cover letter, current c.v., statement of teaching philosophy and names and addresses of three references. Please combine all documents into a single PDF file prior to submission.
