of Architecture, Landscape, and Design, and welcomes applications, nominations, and expressions of interest.

Across its multiple sites—from One Spadina Crescent to the Borden and Forestry buildings—the Faculty fosters a vibrant, interdisciplinary hub for students, scholars, and professionals interested in creating more culturally engaged, ecologically sustainable, socially just, and critically conceived environments and cultural representations. For more information about the Faculty, visit <https://www.daniels.utoronto.ca/>.

Reporting to the Vice-President and Provost, the Dean serves as a member of the University's senior leadership team and is responsible for shaping the Faculty's strategic vision, advancing academic priorities, enhancing the student experience, and overseeing the effective administration of the division. In a role that combines academic leadership with executive oversight, the Dean will champion excellence in teaching, research, and public engagement, all while fostering a collaborative and inclusive culture that strengthens connections within the Faculty and across the University. The Dean is responsible for fostering and supporting excellence in teaching, research, artistic research, and service; enhancing the Faculty's domestic and international reputation and profile; and building relationships with students, faculty, staff, and external audiences, including alumni, donors, governments, cultural institutions, and institutional, corporate, and community partners and professional bodies.

The successful candidate will be a highly respected scholar and academic leader, with a track record of advancing education through excellence, innovation, and a commitment to equity. They will have demonstrated effective leadership in complex academic environments, earning a reputation for sound judgment, integrity, and the ability to foster thoughtful dialogue and meaningful collaboration.

The University will begin considering applicants immediately and will continue to do so until the position is filled. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Applications (including a letter of interest and curriculum vitae) can be sent to Jason Murray, President and Managing Partner at BES Executive Search Inc., by emailing jmurray@bessearch.com.
