See the Stevens Course Catalog for full description. <http://www.stevens.edu/catalog/>

Under this appointment, your responsibilities will include preparing and maintaining course syllabus, teaching assigned classes, attending all class sessions, grading and providing appropriate feedback to students, scheduling office hours, completing all assessments requirements, and attending at least one orientation meeting. You will also be required to provide your students and the School of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences with a comprehensive course syllabus before the start of the semester. The syllabus should include all course requirements, grading policy, assignments, expected exams and required reading. You will provide us with your textbook order in-time for materials to arrive well in advance of the first week of classes. Finally, you will be required to adhere to the policies as stated in the HASS faculty handbook.

Qualifications: Experience teaching at the University level required. All candidates must have already taught the specific course listed, or an equivalent.

On-line applications required at <https://www.stevens.edu/hr/careers-at-stevens>

Positions will remain open until filled.

Applicants should be sure to include a cover letter, current c.v., statement of teaching philosophy, link to work or portfolio, and names and addresses of three references.

NOTE: all of the materials above should be combined into a SINGLE PDF for upload.
