and culture - traditional, modern, international and contemporary, with particular emphasis on the connection between contemporary Chinese and Western art.

The Department invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor / Associate Professor in the field of broadly defined contemporary art. The appointee is expected to contribute to the study of contemporary art on a global scale.

Applicants should have (i) a relevant doctoral degree; (ii) related teaching experience at university level; (iii) ability to teach a wide range of courses in modern, contemporary art and/or curatorship; (iv) ability to conduct academic research in modern and contemporary art (command of the field of digital humanities would be a plus); and (v) ability to teach effectively in both English and Chinese.

Duties include (a) teaching; (b) conducting research and securing research grants; (c) supervise postgraduate students' researches; and (d) assisting in administration, course co-ordination and project development work as assigned.

Appointment will normally be made on contract basis for up to three years initially commencing August 2024, which, subject to mutual agreement, may lead to longer-term appointment or substantiation later.

[Those who have responded to the previous advertisement (Ref. 230002T7) are under consideration and need not reapply in this instance.]

Application Procedure

Applicants please upload the full resume with a cover letter, copies of academic credentials, publication list with abstracts of selected published papers, a research plan, a teaching statement, together with names and e-mail addresses of three referees to whom the applicant's consent has been given for their providing reference (unless otherwise specified).

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for the post above. For more information and to apply online, please visit <http://career.cuhk.edu.hk>.
