track position will begin in fall 2024.) We seek an applicant who specializes in Contemporary art with the experience to teach Modern art and architectural history. We are especially interested in candidates whose research focus includes contemporary issues related to the Global South. The successful candidate will be expected to teach the second half of our introductory survey (Renaissance through Modern), as well as courses in Modern and Contemporary art and architecture. The Art Department is a combined department including Art History and Studio Art. We strongly encourage applications from candidates with prior teaching experience who demonstrate a commitment to diversity and inclusion, curricular development, pedagogical innovation, and use of technology. The Ph.D. in Art History, Architectural History, or related field is required by the start of the appointment. This position is not eligible for H-1B sponsorship.

Located within 70 miles of New York City and Philadelphia, Lafayette College is a highly selective undergraduate institution with significant resources to support faculty members in their teaching and scholarship. Lafayette College is committed to creating a diverse community: one that is inclusive and responsive, and is supportive of each and all of its faculty, students, and staff. All members of the College community share in the responsibility for creating, maintaining, and developing a learning environment in which difference is valued, equity is sought, and inclusiveness is practiced. All Lafayette operations reflect the College's commitment to Diversity, Equity, Access, and Inclusion (DEAI) initiatives, and Lafayette welcomes applicants from diverse backgrounds.
